

M100 Doubles Display Performance & Enhances Recording Capability

GVD is pleased to announce our product M100 has booted up its performance and capability as below, and the new M100 is available from Dec. 1st, 2010.

- New M100 adds one more model: M100-CO12, which provides 12 channels recording compared to the other two models: M100-C004, M100-C008.
- New M100 doubles the display performance to the benchmark: 7x D1 or 2x 1.3Megapixel in full frame rate
- New M100 local display can support up to 3 Megapixel

Having the above benefits, M100 can display more HD video, and shows more channels in the monitor, that brings HD NVR Mini Series into full value especially for retail shop surveillance.
